EXPERIENCE

Beyond imagination and the mystical portraits of a pre-Hispanic world that is every bit as wonderful as it is mysterious, there are spaces dedicated to challenging our beliefs, expanding our panorama, places where architecture and nature converge to create a parallel, almost dreamlike, immersive and sensory universe. El Nido de Quetzalcoatl, a modern masterpiece by architect Javier Senosiain, is one of those places. Hidden among the hills of the State of Mexico, this organic and vibrant space seems straight out of a mythological tale, an invitation to explore the unexpected and marvel at art in its purest form.

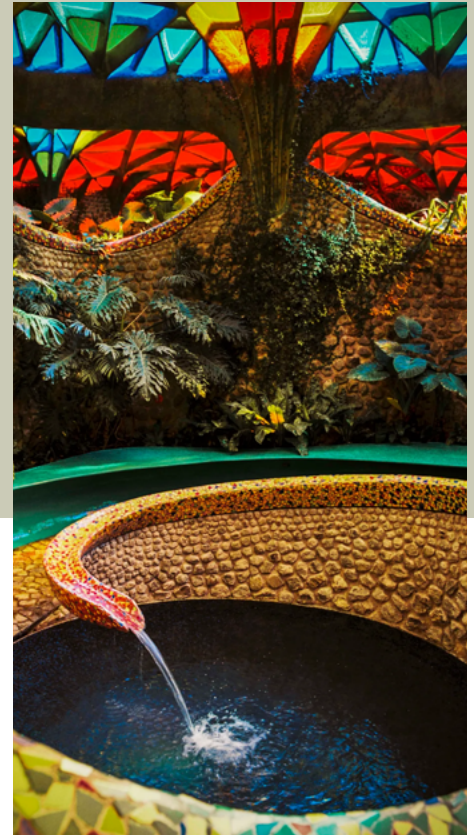

At Colima 71, we know that traveling exists beyond planes and cabs; traveling is about discovery, surprises, and connecting with the extraordinary. Our Quetzalcoatl Nest Experience is an exclusive tour, a must, carefully designed for those looking beyond a mere destination – those after a story to tell.

Surrounded by nature and color

From the very first moment one steps into El Nido de Quetzalcoatl, free diving towards the extraordinary, the feeling of discovering a fascinating parallel world is imminent. Surrounded by lush gardens, organic tunnels, and sinuous structures that seem to emerge from Earth itself, this place defies any traditional concept of architecture.

The fluid design by Senosiain is inspired by the mythical figure of Quetzalcoatl, the feathered serpent of the pre-Hispanic worldview, a symbol of wisdom and transformation. Every corner of the space evokes a sense of discovery: from hidden passageways to vibrantly colored domes that reflect sunlight like the scales of an ancient creature.

The Quetzalcoatl's Nest

The Quetzalcoatl's Nest Experience kicks off with a trip aboard a private, luxury SUV, which will take you from Colima 71, our exclusive hotel in Roma Mexico City, to this magical enclave on the outskirts of the city.

Once at the Nest, a private guide walks by your side, revealing the secrets of bioclimatic design and the inspiration behind each structure. More than a mere walk, this is a journey through Senosiain's imagination, where the line between the natural and the artificial blurs until it becomes null.

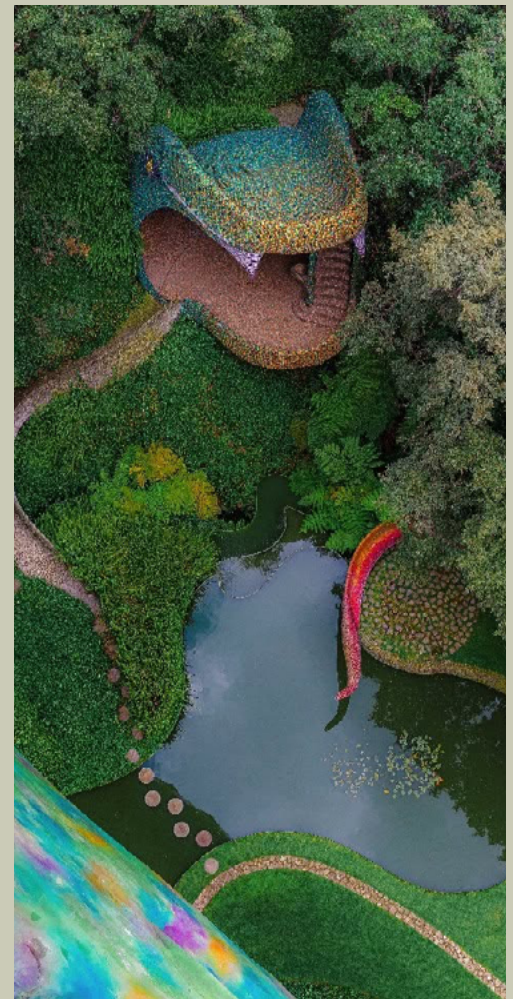

Here, the paths do not lead to simple rooms or gardens; They lead to sensory portals that beckon you to explore with all your might.

The Colima 71 Experience

Beyond El Nido de Quetzalcoatl, our hotel in Roma Mexico City extends an invitation to step into a living work of art every day, every night – lose yourself in a world of kaleidoscopic shapes and impossible hues, a careful dance of light and color, forever living in our walls, hallways and nooks.

At Colima 71, we strive to offer experiences that transcend the ordinary, taking our guests to places that awaken amazement, emotion, and admiration. From curated and balanced spots within, through dedicated service from dawn to dusk, to our Signature Experiences, like the Quetzalcoatl's Nest visit: a tribute to human imagination and the beauty of our environment, for curious spirits and travelers who find beauty in the unexpected.

Book your stay today and prepare to discover a destination that defies the ordinary. Revel in an opportunity to reconnect with nature and creativity at its finest. In our hotel in Roma Mexico City, each trip is a unique story, and each story, an invitation to marvel.
