Every Sunday, the Historic Center of Mexico City turns into a vibrant space, full of life, perfect for enjoying a stroll outdoors, with a magical atmosphere, music, and color. For those looking forward to an unforgettable moment that combines memorable culture, architecture and gastronomy, Colima 71 presents its flagship experience Historic Downtown Experience: A Sunday of Connection and Discovery.

Designed for those who want to explore the city from an intimate and personal perspective, this experience offers a perfect mix of tradition and modernity, ideal to share with loved ones and discover the soul of the Mexican capital, with folklore, flavor and adventure.

Sunday in the Historic Center: A trip through time

Leaving our hotel in Roma Mexico City aboard a luxury SUV vehicle, guests begin this exclusive experience with an exquisite breakfast at the emblematic Café de Tacuba, an iconic restaurant from the early 20th century, located in the historic center. No cultural experience would be complete without the pleasure of local cuisine and at Colima 71, we know that food is also a way of telling stories. Therefore, decorated with classical paintings, mosaics and stained glass, the warm and comfortable atmosphere of the Café is perfect to start the day on the right foot.

After an incredible bike ride along Paseo de la Reforma, where each foot passed becomes a living history lesson, we arrive at the historic center and head to the great Palacio de Bellas Artes in Alameda Central, to enjoy the show of Amalia Hernández's Folkloric Ballet, a tribute to the wonderful world of Mexico with deep research work in the different states of the republic.

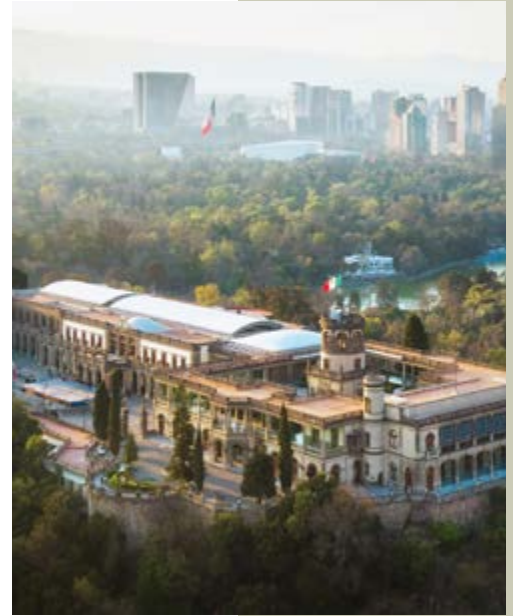

Chapultepec Castle in Mexico City

As part of the Historic Downtown Experience: A Sunday of Connection and Discovery experience, Colima 71 takes you to one of the most emblematic and green spaces in Mexico City: our urban oasis, the great Chapultepec Forest. Known as the lungs of the city, this sprawling park is home to centuries of history and culture. Walking along its trails is an opportunity to disconnect from the bustle of the city, surrounded by nature, and breathe in the blue of the sky in a serene environment that feels like a soft summer breeze.

The tour culminates in the majestic Chapultepec Castle, an architectural jewel that overlooks the city from the top of the hill. This historic site, the only royal castle in America, offers unparalleled panoramic views and a tour of its elegant halls, gardens and terraces. Here, visitors can explore exhibits that chronicle the history of Mexico, from the viceregal era to the Porfiriato, while enjoying the neoclassical splendor of its architecture.

This walk through Chapultepec is the perfect complement to a cultural Sunday, offering an immersive journey through nature, history and art, in an environment that captivates and inspires.
