BASÍLICA DE GUADALUPE

PRIVATE TOUR

A pilgrimage site, its history, and lunch at Nicos.

According to tradition, the Virgin of Guadalupe appeared to Juan Diego on the hill of Tepeyac in 1531. Pilgrims have come ever since. Every 12 December, millions arrive. Some walk hundreds of kilometres, and some cover the last stretch to the basilica on their knees.

A guide tells that story, and the story of the current building, designed by Pedro Ramírez Vázquez.

Lunch is at Nicos, open since 1957, with a special menu of traditional Mexican cooking.
