PRIVATE TOUR

The stables Luis Barragán designed for Folke Egerstrom.

Cuadra San Cristóbal was built between 1966 and 1968 as part of an equestrian estate on the edge of Mexico City, about an hour from Colima 71. Luis Barragán built it for Folke Egerstrom. It has pink walls, a fountain, reflecting pools and stables among open pasture.

Barragán received the Pritzker Prize in 1980. A guide walks us through the courtyards, corridors and reflecting pools, and explains his influence on modern architecture.
