LUCHA LIBRE

COLIMA 71

CASA DE ARTE · HOTEL

PRIVATE TOUR

A night at Arena Coliseo, front row.

Lucha libre is best seen with the crowd. A guide talks us through what is happening in the ring: rudos break the rules, técnicos keep them, and the audience picks a side.

The masks turn wrestlers into characters. In 1933, Salvador Lutteroth founded the company that is now the Consejo Mundial de Lucha Libre. In the 1950s, El Santo, Blue Demon and Huracán Ramírez became popular figures across the country.

After the fights, mezcal cocktails at a bar in Roma Norte.

Includes

- Private transport by SUV.
- A private guide on the history and importance of the sport.
- Front-row seats at Arena Coliseo in Mexico City.
- Mezcal cocktails at a bar in Roma Norte.

From USD 1,000 for two people.

Reserve at least 48 hours in advance.

See you in Mexico City.

